AMANO Teruyosh

Edo Wood Sculpture

5th generation Goto school of Edo sculpture with HIDARI, Jingoro lineage. Works include sculptures for shrines and temples, Buddhist altars, tea ceremony utensils, decorative transoms, dragons, family crests, marquees, and netsuke as well as Noh masks such as female demon, young woman, old man, and Venerable Nichiren.

Learned from father since 1956. Graduated from Tokyo Kogei High School in 1960. Tokyo Traditional Craftsman since 2002. Tokyo Meister since 2005. Director of Tokyo Kencho Society and Japan Wood Sculpture Federation.